PARIS, May 1.—Rioting was frequent in the streets of Paris to-day despite the great guard of 50,000 troops and 20,000 police called out to prevent bloodshed on May Day.

The trouble began early and increased in violence as the day grew.

Business was almost entirely suspended and residents of the city were thoroughly alarmed, fearing that the disturbances would swell to a general uprising.

Many anarchists were during the day expelled from Paris, including Stephane Guertzicoff and one woman. M. Levy. Secretary of the Confederation of La-bor, and M. Fromentin, the wealthy anarchist, have been arrested.

The Piace de la Republique was the common ground sought by all, and as the day advanced the excitement in that section became so great that (Special to The Evening World.) SOUTH END GROUNDS, BOSTON, Mass., May 1.—The Glants pulled down in a game that was fought all the way through. Conway took it into his head to run things as a parlor party and ph McGann, Bresnahan and McGraw outside the enclosure during the game.

The Giants started to work Taylor but Boston has always fancied his twists and got next to him in good shape. McGraw removed him and put Wiltee in. He fared better. For Boston Young worked well, but the Giants were out for the goods, and got them at the tune of 7 to 5.

First Inring. Bresnahan was a good waiter, and got his free transportation. Browne and Bresnahan went into a great double play. The former laced a line fly into right which Dolan made a great catch of. He turned quick and by a fine throw to Tenney naited Bresnahan, who couldn't get back in time. Denlin popped one up for Bridewell. NO RUNS. Denlin popped one up for Bridewell.

NO RUNS.

Bill Dahlen pulled Bridewell's line drive down with one hand in great shap, but didn't recover the ball in time to get it over to McGann. Tenney's bunt toward third was good for a scratch hit as Donlin slipped to the ground trying for a pick-up. Bridewell went to second. Dolan's grounder went direct to McGann for the first out, but Bridewell and Tenney went to second and third. Howard singled to left, scoring Bridewell, but Tenney was held at the middle mark. Brain's wallop into the right garden was a clean single, and Tenney scored while to Gilbert was returned to Bresnahan in record time and Howard was out at the plate. Strobel was the third out, Dahlen tossing the grasser over to McGann hoisted a high one for Capt.
